ALASDAIR (United States)

The week of immersion in Barcelona at Mónica's house has been incredible.

I have loved all the activities, especially the football club, the visit to Barcelona city, and the visit to Rukimon, a donkey reserve in the Montnegre i Corredor Natural Park. Mónica lives there with her parents and Rumba and Samba, two very friendly Golden Retrievers who always want to play and eat.

I have learned a lot about Spanish culture, and I am very happy because my listening comprehension has improved significantly, and I feel more confident speaking Spanish for the oral exam.

My immersion experience in Barcelona was amazing! The lessons prepared me for my IGCSE and boosted my confidence in Spanish.

Living with Mónica and her family made learning fun. Exploring the city, trying tapas, and strolling La Rambla were unforgettable.

A highlight was seeing a boat from the 37th America's Cup at Port Vell and visiting the official shop—I loved picking out some merchandise!

I also had a great time at Mónica's home, meeting her friend's kid, watching rugby, and even visiting Sandro's school. An incredible experience!

GIDEON (United Kingdom)

MEGAN (United Kingdom)

My Spanish Homestay Immersion Programme was an incredible experience! The lessons were tailored to help me prepare for my A-Level Spanish exam.

Staying with Mónica and her family felt like home. Personalized teaching and fun activities made learning Spanish enjoyable and effective.

Highlights included visiting Camp Nou, exploring downtown Barcelona, and spending time at the donkey reserve. Every moment enriched my Spanish and cultural knowledge.

HEAR WHAT OUR STUDENTS HAVE TO SAY...

MAXTED (United Kingdom)

"Staying with Mónica in Ciutadella was really cool because her house is right in the old town, surrounded by amazing buildings and palaces.

Speaking Spanish every day felt natural, not like school. Menorca is beautiful — the beaches are bright turquoise, and we even walked parts of the Camí de Cavalls.

I also learned a lot about the island's history, and living there really helped me grow in confidence. Mónica supported me a lot and helped me prepare for my A-level speaking exam, which was the most difficult part for me. Thanks to her, I felt much more confident speaking Spanish."

JO (United Kingdom)

"This was my first immersion trip and it didn't feel scary at all. Mónica was really welcoming, and staying in her house in Ciutadella helped me practise Spanish every day. Her natural sense of humour and how approachable she is made it feel like being with an aunty rather than just a teacher. She is lovely!

The town is full of history and palaces, and Menorca's food and beaches were amazing. Living with Mónica really helped me feel more confident speaking Spanish, and she supported me a lot with preparing for my Spanish IGCSE speaking exam, which I found the hardest part."

AGATA (Poland)

"I felt comfortable straight away staying with Mónica in Ciutadella. Her home is in the historic centre, so everywhere you walk feels special.

We visited Mahón, the capital of Menorca, saw ancient megalithic monuments, and spent time at the beach.

I loved how Spanish was part of normal life — talking, eating, and exploring. Living this way really helped build my confidence, and Mónica supported me a lot in preparing for my A-level speaking exam, which I found the most challenging. Menorca feels calm and safe, even outside the busy season."
